Dear Toronto Resident,

The City's Planning Division needs your help to make sure we are creating a city that is prosperous, livable, equitable, and environmentally responsible.

This letter is a special invitation to apply to be part of the new Planning Review Panel, and to add your voice to Toronto's planning process. If you are 18 years of age or older and live in Toronto, you can apply — no experience is necessary.

Whether you're new to Toronto or a long-time resident, you know the city is changing fast.

New buildings and infrastructure are being constructed to meet the needs of the 20,000 net new residents who each year decide to make Toronto their home. This makes Toronto one of the fastest-growing and most dynamic cities in North America.

The City's Planning Division is responsible for ensuring that this growth enhances the city we share — from Steeles Avenue to the waterfront, and from Rouge River to Etobicoke Creek.

This means thinking about the long-term impacts of growth, while balancing the different interests, needs, and priorities of the city's 2.8 million residents. We need your help to get this balance right.

The Planning Review Panel is a new way for City Planning to hear the perspectives of Torontonians like you. As a member of the Panel, you will learn about your city and provide input and local expertise on important planning issues shaping Toronto. These issues could relate to transportation, zoning for new homes and businesses, neighbourhood density and character, historic buildings, and the locations of libraries, community centres, parks, and other neighbourhood amenities.

Membership on the panel is open to any Toronto resident who receives this letter and is 18 years of age or older. From among the pool of applicants, 28 members will be randomly selected to ensure broad representation from across the city. You do not need to be a Canadian citizen, and there is no cost to participate.

The Planning Review Panel will meet six times each year, following a special orientation program this fall. Each member will serve on the Panel for two years.

Joining the Panel is a great way to:

- Learn first-hand about your city and the planning process;
- Contribute your perspective and learn about the views of other Toronto residents; and
- Provide insight to the Planning Division concerning important issues shaping the city.

You do not need to be an expert to participate. It's your perspective as a Toronto resident that matters most.

Frequently Asked Questions

Toronto Planning Review Panel

What is a Planning Review Panel?

A Planning Review Panel is a group of residents brought together to learn about, discuss, and provide input to City Planning staff on important city planning issues. Twenty-eight randomly selected Torontonians will be appointed to the Panel as volunteers for two years. The Panel will develop its input as a group and will work to reflect the interests of all Torontonians.

Why have a Planning Review Panel in Toronto?

Toronto is changing fast. Each year 20,000 net new residents make Toronto their home, and they all need places to live, work, and play. This means we need to build or upgrade new and existing buildings, public spaces and infrastructure to meet the city's changing needs. The Planning Review Panel will be a new way for residents to share their perspectives on how best to direct this growth and change. The City of Toronto's Planning Division believes the input of residents like you, and the expert knowledge you have about the communities you live in, is essential for good decision-making. The insights and local expertise of the Panel will complement other forms of community consultation and help to ensure that growth occurs in ways that reflect the values and priorities of Toronto's residents.

But I am not an expert — can I still be involved?

Absolutely. We do not expect you to have any specialized knowledge about city planning. Your perspective and experience as a Toronto resident is what matters most. Each member will have enough time to learn everything they need to make an informed contribution to the Planning Review Panel.

What is the City of Toronto's Planning Division?

The City Planning Division provides advice to City Council that helps guide growth in neighbourhoods across Toronto. We shape how the city looks and feels, and develop plans that ensure residents can work, live, play, and move throughout the city. We review applications for new buildings; promote well-designed streets, parks and open spaces; guide how buildings are located, organized, and shaped; plan transportation; work to transform Toronto's waterfront; and undertake in-depth research used by other City Divisions on land use, housing, community services, and the environment.

What would be my role as a member of the Planning Review Panel?

Between October 2015 and November 2017, members of the Planning Review Panel will meet 16 times. As a member of the Panel you will:

- Learn first-hand about the city and its planning process from independent experts as well as City staff;
- Contribute your perspective and learn about the views of others; and
- Provide input to the Planning Division on important issues shaping the city.

The Planning Division will request input from the Planning Review Panel on issues such as transportation plans, the desired density and character of different neighbourhoods, the importance of historic buildings and public art, and the location of new community amenities like parks, libraries, and community centres.

What will be done with the Panel's input?

The Planning Review Panel is intended to be an influential body and an important source of input that will help the Planning Division provide effective advice to City Council. The panel's perspectives, insights, and priorities will be referenced in reports to Council and published on the City of Toronto's website.

How was I selected to receive this invitation?

Your address was one of 12,000 households across Toronto randomly selected by Canada Post to receive this invitation.

Who is eligible to serve on the Planning Review Panel?

To be a member of the Planning Review Panel you must be 18 years of age or older and a current resident of a household that received this letter. You do not need to be a Canadian citizen to participate. Only one volunteer per household will be eligible for membership on the Planning Review Panel. Employees of the City of Toronto, contractors working for the Planning Division, members of other official City of Toronto Advisory Bodies, as well as elected municipal, provincial, and federal officials are ineligible to serve as members of the Planning Review Panel.

Can anyone from my household volunteer?

Yes. This invitation is transferable to anyone living in your household. If you are unavailable, please pass this invitation to any member of your household who is 18 years of age or older.

How will the members of the Planning Review Panel be selected?

Members will be chosen by randomly selecting names from among the pool of volunteers who respond to this letter — a process we call a Civic Lottery. We will make sure the panel is as diverse as Toronto itself, with equal representation of both men and women, as well as people of all ages, homeowners and renters, and people who identify as visible minorities. The Panel will also include at least one Aboriginal member.

How do I become a member of the Planning Review Panel?

First, you must respond to this invitation no later than Tuesday, October 6, 2015. You can register over the phone at 1-844-711-8186, online at toronto.ca/planning/tprp or by using the enclosed prepaid envelope. Then, on Wednesday, October 7, 2015, we will randomly select members of the Planning Review Panel from among those who have registered as volunteers. If you are selected, you will be notified by phone.

I am unsure whether I can attend all sixteen meetings, can I still volunteer?

It is very important that all members of the Planning Review Panel attend each meeting. We realize, however, that this is a significant commitment. We are asking you to donate your time and volunteer as a member of the Panel. Lunches and snacks will be provided, and basic travel costs, including parking, will be reimbursed. Childcare and eldercare will be made available (or an equivalent subsidy) if requested. However, we do not provide an honorarium or any additional compensation. There is no cost to participate.

Will the Planning Review Panel have translation services?

The Panel's meetings will be in English and simultaneous translation will not be available.

I have a physical disability. Can you assist me in participating?

If you would like to be a member of the Planning Review Panel, but are concerned about potential barriers to participating, please call 1-844-711-8186. We are committed to assisting all members of the Planning Review Panel so that they can participate successfully, and will do our best to accommodate your needs.

If I do not get chosen for the Planning Review Panel, can I still be involved in city government?

Absolutely. The City of Toronto hosts a variety of public consultations each year on a range of local and city-wide subjects. A list of upcoming consultations can be found by visiting www.toronto.ca/involved and clicking on "Consultations."
